

Georgian Care Workers in Italy

by

Sopo Japaridze

and also our union organizer, Nazzie Bibichadze

Solidarity Network – Independent Union of Health and Care Workers

Indentured Servitude

“This is worse than prison, with prison, you know how long your sentence will be, here we don’t know when will this ever end.”

-Many Women

Unconventional Approach for Union Strategies

Why is our union investigating and organizing Georgian care workers in Italy?

The Journey of Georgian Migrant Care Workers in Italy

Current Progress and Scope

Drivers of Emigration

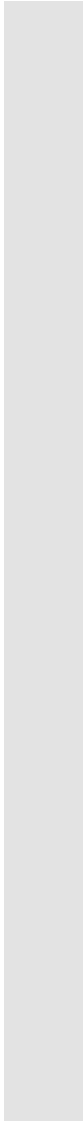

Remittances: A Lifeline

Georgian Caregivers in Italy

Challenges Faced by Children Left Behind

Arriving in Italy: Living Conditions and Choices

Legalization Challenges

Challenging Work Environments

Mental Health Struggles

Sacrifice and Rebellion

Desire

*“There is no sun on heavenly arch, No breezes blow, woods give no start With joy ...
Without love there’s Neither beauty, Nor immortality there is Without love.*

Love is my dream, I don’t want to die without the feeling of love, I want someone to love me, I want a relationship. I miss closeness.

Advocacy and Organizing

Thank You

Q & A